

A FOND FAREWELL

OUTGOING CHIEF

Lady Patricia, the Countess Mountbatten of Burma, the colonel-in chief of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, points to medals worn by Cpl. David MacDonald as she inspects a PPCLI honour guard in Ottawa yesterday. Lady Patricia will hand over her role as colonel-in-chief to former governor general Adrienne Clarkson during a ceremony in Edmonton on March 17.

CLARKSON TAKES UP ROYAL POST

Former governor general Adrienne Clarkson, left front, and Lady Patricia Brabourne take part in a change of appointment ceremony in Edmonton yesterday that saw Clarkson succeed Lady Patricia, Countess Mountbatten of Burma, as colonel-in-chief of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. Clarkson is the first Canadian to assume the role of the PPCLI colonel-in-chief, a post previously reserved for members of the Royal Family.
